

NQT Programme 2014-15

Who is it for?

This programme is for newly qualified Teachers who are at the beginning of their teaching careers and are looking for opportunities to build upon and further develop their initial teacher training skills

Benefits

- ✓ 'Hit the ground running' confident that support and help is a hand
- ✓ Get the best out of their first year for themselves and their pupils
- ✓ Be secure in the knowledge about good and outstanding teaching
- ✓ Be able to identify their own strengths and future areas for development through becoming reflective practitioners

What does it involve?

- A twilight networking event offering 'top tips' for the first days and weeks as an NQT plus 6 three hour sessions – one per half term
- Access to a dedicated NQT online community, providing tasks and support
- A professional network
- A tight focus on teaching and learning
- Good/outstanding lesson 'top tips'
- Action into practice / share and review to capture new learning
- SwapShop – what is working well / issues to solve
- Gap tasks between sessions

The Programme

NQT Induction 10th July 2014 – 4.30pm to 6.30pm @ Cotgrave Candleby Lane School

Session 1 – Creating a positive learning climate – 9th October - 1.30pm to 4.30pm – Ramsdale Golf Club

Session 2 – Planning for effective learning – 13th November – 1.30pm to 4.30pm – Linby

Session 3 – Using assessment to inform teaching and learning – 15th January – 9am to Noon – Ramsdale

Session 4 – Challenge and engagement for All – 5th March - 9am to Noon – CCLS

Session 5 – Questioning and thinking skills – 23rd April – 1.30pm to 4.30pm – CCLS

Final Session – Looking back and moving forward – 2nd July – 1.30pm to 4.30pm – National College

Full programme cost is £300 per person